

Katie Margaret Lees

24th September 1986 – 4th August 2021

Artist, actor, writer, daughter, sister, friend, free spirit, creative soul and humanitarian.

'I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.'

- Maya Angelou

Processional

'These Days' by Powderfinger

Welcome David Hynes (celebrant)

Eulogy David Hynes

Photo memories The Early Years

'Heart Beats Slow' by Angus & Julia Stone

Reflections of Katie, our daughter

Penny & Ian Lees

Reflections of Katie, our sister

Annika Haddock

Jonathan Robinson-Lees

Hamish Lees

Photo memories The Teen Years

'This Old Love' by Lior

Reflections of Katie, our niece

Liz Lees

Debbie Walkerden

Reflections of Katie, our friend

Grace, Danielle, Laura, Prue, Marianna, Bec, Nicole and Nikki

Photo memories Celebrating our Katie

'Everywhere' by Fleetwood Mac

Placing of flowers and messages

'The Special Two' by Missy Higgins

Committal David Hynes

Arrivederci

'Follow the Sun' by Xavier Rudd

'Ironing boards are surfboards who gave up on their dreams. Don't be an ironing board.'

– From 'Temporary' by Katie Lees

“My life isn’t necessarily in alignment with others my age, but it’s mine. As my younger, and therefore much wiser, sister once said ‘Life only becomes a chronology when you look back on it. At the time you are just trying to find your way’, I thought that was pretty profound for an accountant.

We are all human, we shouldn’t be defined by our age, occupation or anything else. We make mistakes but that’s ok. I maintain that my regrets have made me learn but let’s live with a no regrets attitude.”

- Katie Lees (from her show The Hour of Power)